

About the College

Pfutsero Government College is an arts college affiliated to Nagaland University. It was established in 1982 under the initiative of the visionary leaders of the area. The Government of Nagaland took over the college on 1st April 2009. The college has been engaged in fostering the spirit of enquiry and nurturing a knowledge that strengthens the knowledge base of the students to propel them to be responsible human beings. The college offers undergraduate degree course to Humanities and Social Sciences.

The college is 74 km away from the State capital, Kohima and 76 km away from the Phek, Dist. HQ.

Research being the core for academic excellence, the research committee feels that a workshop on 'Introduction to research methodology' will greatly help in fostering research environment among the teaching faculties and researchers.
